260 — Troubling Thoughts

Panel 1: Each panel is split down the middle; on the left is Nickey, alone in her own room, and on the right is Sheila, also alone in her own room in the house, and in her kangaroo form. They appear to be thinking the same thoughts: I like her so much, and she's a really good person. I'm glad to have her in my life.

Panel 2: More thoughts: There's a lot riding on all of this. She's taking a risk to be so open with me, and I respect her for that.

Panel 3: More thoughts: I guess I really didn't think it all through when all this started. There's so much to consider, so much to think about.

Panel 4: More thoughts: Will she still like me when she finds out what I'm really like?
