272 — Find a Way

Panel 1: In her bedroom in the house, Sheila (kangaroo) is sitting on her bed; she's been crying, but she's starting to regain herself. Sitting next to her, Ophelia (skunk) has an arm around the roo's shoulders.

Gently, she says, "I'm going to ask a few difficult questions, Shee, and I need you to answer them. First, above all: Do you really think you're going to find an answer in one night?" Reluctantly, Sheila answers, "No."

Panel 2: The skunk asks, "Do you love Nickey?" Sheila, trying not to start crying again, says, "It's all so new, it's..." Pressing, softly but firmly, Ophelia says, "Look in your heart. Do you love her?" Almost in a whisper, the 'roo replies, "...yes."

Panel 3: Ophelia, still quiet, asks, "Do you think she loves you?" Still quiet, her forepaws in her lap, Sheila says, "...yes, I think she does."

Panel 4: Pulling Sheila closer, Ophelia asks, "Then do you really believe that love will find a way?" Leaning into the embrace, Sheila replies, "I hope so... Oh, Phee, I really hope so..."
