269 — Best Girl in the World

Panel 1: In her bedroom, Nickey is seated at her desk, writing in her journal. Her long hair covers much of her face, but a smile is visible as she writes. Above her is a narration bar with her words: Dear Diary... It finally happened. Sheila and I made love all afternoon. It was glorious, more than I could ever have hoped for.

Panel 2: At the house, Sheila comes barging inside, slamming the door behind her. Her four housemates, seated in various places in the living room, react sharply to her arrival. In the narration bar above, Nickey's words continue: We have a lot to work out, but I feel strongly that we're very good for each other.

Panel 3: Theo and Ophelia have risen from their chairs, and all stare open-mouthed as Sheila pelts up the stairs two steps at a time. In the narration bars, above and below: I don't want to jump too far too fast; this is all very new for both of us. We'll need to give each other a lot of support, room, and time. But I think I love her.

Panel 4: Upstairs, Sheila has entered her bedroom, dark except for the light coming in through her open window. On her face, a look as if she's about to cry. The narration bar reads, I think Sheila is the most beautiful human being in the world.
