

Transcript for Strip 048 — Tearin' 'Em Up

- Panel 1: In a cubicle somewhere in Corporate America, we see a non-descript figure at a work desk, answering the phone. “Parasitic Health Group, Marketing Research; can I help you?”
- Panel 2: A voice on the phone answers, “This is Also-Ran Temporaries calling; we wanted to see how our temp, Caedmon, is doing for you.”
- Panel 3: The researcher says, “He’s dealing with those surveys faster than anyone we’ve ever had. He’s tearin’ ‘em up in there!”
- Panel 4: We find Caedmon (badger) in his cubicle; we see him in his anthro form, since he’s alone. He very definitely is tearing up the forms, one by one.
