032 — Tiger Direct

Panel 1: At the computer desk in her bedroom, Ophelia (skunk) stands to one side as Theo (white tiger) sits in her chair in front of the keyboard. “Here,” he says, “let me at this sucker.” On the screen are the words, JUST TRY SOMETHING, HAIRBALL!

Panel 2: Theo’s hands are a blur of speed, as line after line of code appears on what would otherwise be the infamous Blue Screen of Death.

Panel 3: With the computer screen blank, as if the machine is rebooting, Theo rises from the chair, saying, “That oughta do it.”

Panel 4: On the screen, we now see the words, WHAT IS YOUR WILL, MY MISTRESS? Ophelia smiles happily, saying, “Hey, you should market this skill.” Theo, departing, replies, “I was going to call myself Tiger Direct, but someone beat me to it.”
