042 — Picture This

Panel 1: Theo (white tiger) is in his cubicle at work; we see him in his tiger form since he's alone. Answering a call on his headset, he says, "Thank you for Calling Last Hope Help Desk; my name is Theo. How may I assist you?" The voice on the phone says, "Yes, I'm calling about Special Offer 21."

Panel 2: "Certainly, sir," Theo replies. "That's our package of high-quality animated files that you can install directly onto your website, desktop, or screen-saver." "Actually," the voice says, "I'm wondering if I could make it a present for my son's birthday."

Panel 3: Theo smiles, answering, "Absolutely! I can provide a coupon for you; your son can redeem it as his leisure."

Panel 4: The voice on the phone says, "So it's a GIF certificate?" The tiger laughs, "I'll alert the marketing department to change the name at once, sir."
