007 — Civilized Eating

Panel 1: A double-width panel. In the living room, Ophelia is standing about where she was when she came in. Theo is still working his gaming controller, Lightfoot continues working on his macrame project at his desk, and Caedmon is still reading his book in his easy chair. Ophelia asks, “Any plans for dinner?” Theo responds, “I vote that we have food.” Caedmon blandly observes, “Brilliant, Holmes.” Lightfoot says, “I’d volunteer to make something fancy, if someone else can buy ingredients.”

Panel 2: Sheila walks by Ophelia, waving a farewell. Ophelia asks, “What about you?” Sheila replies, “Gotta go warm up for my b-ball game tonight. Sorry, mate!”

Panel 3: On her own in the frame, Ophelia thinks, Even in a civilized works, we sometimes have to forage for food. From outside the panel, we hear Theo say, “We can always order pizza!” Caedmon replies, “You buyin’, Theo?”
