268 — Nothing to Hide

- Panel 1: Sheila and Nickey are sitting on the couch in Nickey's living room, holding hands and talking after their long Sunday together. Nickey says, "We can't get through everything in one conversation, can we?" "Prolly not," Sheila admits. "We're just going to have to take our chances and make it up as we go along."
- Panel 2: Leaning in close, Nickey is reassuring. "It's all right, Shee," she says. "We care about each other, and we want our relationship to be more. It's not like we're keeping earth-shaking secrets from each other, right?"
- Panel 3: We see Sheila silently remembering her experience in the bathroom of the house, where she imagined seeing her human face in the mirror.
- Panel 4: Nickey's eyes are closed as her head rests on Sheila's shoulder. "No, luv," Sheila whispers, her expression clearly worried. "Nothing to hide."
